

Somalia

Known for decades of civil war, insurgency, and terrorism, with Al-Shabaab's reign of terror as a significant threat.

South Sudan

Marred by ethnic violence, political instability, and humanitarian crises since independence.

Libya

Chaos and Lawlessness post-Muammar Gaddafi's ousting in 2011, allowing extremist groups like ISIS to establish footholds.

WAR

Nigeria

Faces insurgency and ethnic violence, with Boko Haram's reign of terror as a persistent threat.

DRC

Faces entrenched conflict, political instability, and humanitarian emergencies, particularly in the eastern regions.

Resource Curse and Regional Instability

DRC's vast mineral wealth fuels violence and corruption, perpetuating cycles of conflict and poverty.

—”
AFRICA'S MOST DANGEROUS COUNTRIES: POLITICAL INSTABILITY, CONFLICT, TERRORISM, AND ECONOMIC CHALLENGES
”—

Addressing these issues requires united efforts from national governments, regional bodies, and the international community.